THE BULLETIN.

THE MENNONITES.

Our despatches yesterday announced that the "Mennonites have arrived in New York and intend to make Minnesota their home." Do our readers know who the Mennonites are? The homes of these people were at Friesland, in the Ukraine, where they lived as farmers, mostly on their own lands. The sect is of German origin, is Baptist in religious theory, but holding the additional tenet of non-resistance. The efforts of the czar to Russinize them by annulling their long-time exemption from military service, and by trying to induce them to adopt the Russian tongue in place of their ancestral German, and to conform in other respects to Russian customs, determined the Mennonites to emigrate. They have been given by the Russian government a space of ten years in which to either emigrate or to adopt wholly the Russian spirit and ways. After that time if they remain they must be content to lose themselves in the general level of Russian subjects, with the enjoyment of no isolation or special privileges of any kind. Notwithstanding the announcement of the government that any of this sect are at liberty to emigrate at any time within the prescribed ten years. The body which arrived last week had considerable difficulty in getting permission to leave the country. Only after repeated application to provincial governors, to the governor-general, and finally to the minister at St. Petersburg, were they allowed to go. The sect already numbers, it is said, about 150,000 in this country who came from Germany direct.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The barber shop is on the corner of Eighth street and Commercial avenue where J. George Stienhouse with his gentlemanly assistants can be found at any hour of the day or night, ready to soothe your feelings with a smooth shave, or cool your temper and head with a good shampoo. It is a first-class shop, and you are sure of receiving first-class treatment. Ladies and children's hair cut or curled after the most approved styles. 8-15-17

Dr. Laverty, homoeopathic physician, late of Shawneetown, has located in this city and intends making it his home. The doctor comes to Cairo well recommended, and refers to the officers of the First National bank of Shawneetown, to whom he is well known, having practiced his profession among them for years. He solicits a fair share of the patronage of our citizens. 7-20-17

P. Fitzgerald at his rooms, corner Fourteenth street and Commercial avenue, offers for sale Guinness Porter & Bass ale and pure Hennessy Brandy, and the genuine Angostura bitters, all first-class cholera cures. Try them. 7-17-17

Dr. W. R. Smith has removed his office to the second story of Louis Herbert's new brick building on Eighth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, where he has more comfortable and commodious quarters. 8-10-17

Phil. H. Saap receives ripe, luscious grapes every morning, fresh from the vineyard. He offers them for sale at wholesale or retail, 102 Commercial avenue. 14-8-17

D. Arter has the largest and most complete stock of harness, saddles, bridles and strap goods in the city which he says he will sell at bottom prices for cash and on credit. 8-10-17

Halley has a lot of wood pumps and tubing which he offers extra low; call and see them, 168 Washington avenue. 7-29-17

Halley will offer extra inducements for the next 30 days, so as to make room for his large order of heating stoves. 7-29-17

Halley's stock of fruit cans is the largest in the market, and he has loads of can wax. 7-29-17

Go to Halley's for good stoves and good bargains, 163 Washington avenue. 7-29-17

Green wood fifty cents a load at the box factory. 7-30-17
